

Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct explains how Church Workers are expected to behave. It helps build a safe, fair, and respectful place for all.

Our Commitment

We promise to make our church:

- Safe: A place where children are protected from harm.
- Inclusive: A place where children are welcome and belong.
- Professional: A place where grown-ups act responsibly.
- Trustworthy: A place where children can believe what we say.
- Service-focused: A place where we help others.

How Church Workers Should Behave

Church Workers will always:

- Be kind and friendly to everyone.
- Listen carefully when you talk.
- Treat everyone fairly.
- Respect your privacy.
- Follow the rules to keep you safe.
- Report if something doesn't seem right.

What Church Workers Must Not Do

Church Workers will never:

- Hurt you in any way.
- Put you in a dangerous situation.
- Say mean things to you or about you.
- Ignore you or your feelings.
- Share your secrets without your permission (unless to keep you safe).
- Show favouritism (play favourites).
