

ARCHDIOCESE OF BRISBANE

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND VULNERABLE ADULTS STATUS REPORT SEPTEMBER 2015

Child Protection Week 2015 provides the opportunity for me, as the Archbishop of Brisbane, to provide a report to the Catholic community on the strategies and actions we have initiated arising from the 'Safeguarding Children and Vulnerable Adults Policy' of the Archdiocese of Brisbane.

As Archbishop I am acutely aware of the harm that has been caused by those in whose care children should have been safe. We continue to express our sorrow for the hurt that has occurred.

As Archbishop I am personally committed to ensuring that the Archdiocese does everything it can to learn from the lessons of the past.

Not only do we need to learn more, but we need to teach more. We need to teach our communities the truth of abuse and the truth of what its prevention requires. The purpose of this teaching will be to create and sustain genuinely safe environments; and that will involve not just new processes, procedures and protocols. It will involve a change in the culture – a culture which has allowed abuse to happen and to be so badly mishandled when it came to light.

This Report is the first of what will be annual reports which outline the actions and strategies the Archdiocese of Brisbane has implemented to safeguard children and vulnerable adults. The Report seeks to demonstrate that the Archdiocese is doing what it said it would do to safeguard children.

It is my hope and prayer that the Catholic community of Brisbane will acknowledge the faults of the past and work together in ensuring a safe and nurturing future.

Archbishop of Brisbane

1) INTENT AND SCOPE OF THE REPORT

This 'Status Report' is intended to provide an overview of the current status of the implementation of the Archdiocese of Brisbane's 'Safeguarding Children and Vulnerable Adults Policy'. The Report is being released as another activity through which the Archdiocese supports Child Protection Sunday (13 September 2015).

The Report is the first of what are planned to be annual 'Safeguarding Children and Vulnerable Adults Status Reports' by the Archdiocese of Brisbane. This Report details the actions taken by the Archdiocese since the beginning of 2014.

The Archdiocese of Brisbane is not aware of similar reporting measures in any of Australia's religious organisations.

2) ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF PAST WRONGS

The Archdiocese of Brisbane fully endorses the position of the Australian Catholic Bishops:

"As bishops and leaders of religious institutes of the Catholic Church in Australia, we acknowledge with deep sadness and regret that a number of clergy and religious and other church personnel have abused children, adolescents and adults who have been in their pastoral care. To these victims we again offer our sincere apology".<sup>1</sup>

3) COMMITMENT FOR THE FUTURE

The Archdiocese of Brisbane also recognises that it is not sufficient to only acknowledge past wrongs and apologise. Besides reparation for these wrongs, it is critical that policies and actions are put in place to safeguard children and vulnerable adults.

The Archdiocese of Brisbane has adopted the following ‘Safeguarding Children and Vulnerable Adults’ policy:

POLICY STATEMENT<sup>2</sup>

...for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

Mark 10:14

Children, young people and vulnerable adults are a gift from God with an intrinsic right to dignity of life, respect and security from physical and emotional harm. They are to be treasured, nurtured and safeguarded.

This means that everyone in the church must ensure that the fundamental rights of children, young people and vulnerable adults are respected. This will be achieved through the development of respectful relationships and a commitment to safety embracing appropriate boundaries, behaviours and practices, in accordance with the Archdiocese of Brisbane Code of Ethical Behaviour for employees and volunteers who work in service of the Church as well as adherence to the legislative imperatives of the State.

“The Archdiocese of Brisbane is committed to taking the necessary steps to:

- Ø demonstrate that the right to protection from harm for all people is paramount;
- Ø foster best practice in safeguarding children, young people and vulnerable adults;
- Ø demonstrate accountability through establishing effective structures and practices;
- Ø support Archdiocesan organisations and personnel in safeguarding children and vulnerable adults;
- Ø uphold safe recruitment and selection practices for all Church personnel including volunteers because the Archdiocese is committed to employing people who will keep children and vulnerable adults safe from harm;
- Ø uphold and maintain standards of conduct which set out clear guidelines regarding ethical behaviour as an essential part of reducing the risk of harm for all people;
- Ø operate safe play, learning and pastoral environments that ensure safety”.<sup>3</sup>

5) CONCLUSION

Learning from the lessons of the past, the Archdiocese of Brisbane is taking seriously its duty and responsibility to ensure the safety of children and vulnerable adults.

The Archdiocese has adopted a “Safeguarding Children and Vulnerable Adults Prevention and Protection Policy” and implemented a range of strategies and actions to support the Policy principles.

The Archdiocese has recently made further enhancements to the Policy by committing to Independent External Audits to provide further transparency in the implementation of the Policy.
